I believe that my car finance / PCP has been mis-sold due to the fact/s as follows:

I was not made aware that the broker / dealer would be paid commission by the lender

I was not made aware of the amount of commission paid to the dealer / broker

I was not made properly aware that I would not own the vehicle at the end of the contract

I was not made aware that I would still owe a significant amount to purchase the car

I was not provided with any other options in which I could purchase the car

I believe that better, alternate ways to have purchased the car were available, but not presented

SortMyCash Fees

SortMyCash will not charge you any fee directly (subject to cancellation charges as described in our Terms of Engagement enclosed). However, you will be recommended to our car finance claim partner solicitors, Chan Neill Solicitors who will look to pursue the claim on your behalf. The terms of Chan Neill Solicitors agreement will be stipulated by them in the contract, but for reference it will be on a No Win, No Fee basis and you will be charged 30% + VAT of any Compensation (as defined in the Terms of Engagement), plus the costs awarded by the court, which may be recoverable from the opposition or covered by an After The Event ('ATE') insurance policy. SortMyCash will be paid a referral fee from the firm of solicitors for providing our services to you and the firm of solicitors. Our fee will be paid out of the 30% + VAT that Chan Neill Solicitors will charge you for a successful claim. This is set out in our Terms of Engagement. Being recommended by SortMyCash will not affect the amount that you pay and you would pay the same had you chose to proceed with them directly.

Recommendation

Hidden / secret commission has only recently been found to be common place by the FCA and therefore as this is a relatively infant area of consumer compensation and as there is not a specific precedent Court case directly linked with car finance / PCP claims, the SortMyCash recommendation to proceed with these matters is to seek expert legal advice. You are free to choose your own appointed legal expert or dismiss our recommendation to appoint a legal representative, but it is our position to recommend using our car finance claim / PCP solicitor partner, Chan Neill Solicitors, for best chance of success.

I hereby acknowledge that I have read and understood the above conditions, along with the separate Terms of Engagement. I understand that I can claim direct myself without charge, but prefer to appoint the services of an expert in this field. I also acknowledge and understand that I have the right to appoint any legal representative I so choose.
